On the 23d Inſtant, at Nine o'Clock in the Morning, his Royal Highneſs the Archduke Ferdinand, Governor and Captain-General of Auſtrian Lombardy, after taking Leave of their Imperial Majeſties and all the Royal Family, went to his Coach, which waited for him at the Place called Spanier-Platz. His Royal Highneſs was attended thither by the Arch-duke Maximilian, and preceded by the Pages, Chamberlains, Privy Councillors, Great Officers of their Majeſties, and Captains of the Guards. His Royal Highneſs afterwards paſſed through the Great Square of the Court, where Detachments of the Noble German and Hungarian Horſe Guards were drawn up with their Trumpets, as alſo the Foot Guards, the Grand Guard under Arms. His Royal Highneſs then paſſed through the Square of St. Michael, the Kolmarkt, the Graben, the Place called Stock am Eiſen, and thro' the Street of Italy to the Gate of that Name. The Burghers Companies formed a double Line the whole Way; the Infantry and Cavalry of the Garriſon were poſted from the Gate of Italy as far as the Suburb of Marie-hulf, where a very great Multitude was aſſembled, who made the Air echo with their Acclamations. From this Place, his Royal Highneſs departed in the following Order, under a Salute of the Muſquetry of a Battalion of Grenadiers poſted on the Parade, near the Court, and of a Diſcharge of the Cannon of the Ramparts.

A Detachment of Huſſars, two Poſtillions ſounding their Horns.

A Coach, wherein were the Counts de Broun, de Stampa, and de Sinzendorff.

Chamberlains to their Imperial Majeſties and to their Royal Highneſſes.

A Coach, wherein were Count de Hardegg, their Imperial Majeſties Chamberlain, and Firſt Equerry to his Royal Highneſs, with the Prince of Lamberg and Count de Salm, alſo their Majeſties Chamberlains.

A Poſt-Maſter on Horſeback.

A Coach, in which was his Royal Highneſs the Archduke, and oppoſite to him the Prince of Paar, Poſt-Maſter General, and the Count Sigiſmond de Kevenhuller-Metſch, his Royal Highneſs's Great Maſter of the Houſehold.

Two Noble Hungarian Guards.

A Cabinet Courier.

A Poſtillion of the Court, and one of the Imperial Poſt.

The Confeſſor, Phyſician, Treaſurer, and Privy Purſe.

His Royal Highneſs left Part of his Retinue at Buckerſtorff, to travel with the greater Expedition by the Way of St. Polten to Marie-Zell, and from thence through Pruck to Loeben, where the reſt of his Attendants will join him.

Berlin, September 28. Laſt Tueſday, the Prince Royal of Pruſſia, together with the Princeſs his Conſort, arrived in this Capital from Potzdam; and the next Day, being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highneſs, when he entered into the 28th Year of Age, his Royal Highneſs had, in the Morning, a very numerous Levee, at which the Foreign Miniſters were preſent, when he received the Compliments uſual on the Occaſion; and in the Evening there was a ſplendid Supper and Ball in the Apartments of the Princeſs Dowager. The next Day, their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs returned to Potzdam. The Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, who arrived lately at Potzdam, in order to be preſent preſent at the late Reviews, is to leave that Place To-morrow or next Day, on his Return to Brunſwick.

The different Regiments, which compoſe Part of this Garriſon, returned hither laſt Tueſday from Potzdam, where they were reviewed and exerciſed by his Pruſſian Majeſty.
